
Holiday activities for kids Terms and conditions

Registration / Programme

- Registration is validated within the limit of available places.
- Registration will be confirmed once the participation fees have been registered by the Equal Opportunities Office.
- The Equal Opportunities office reserves itself the right to:
 - modify the content and schedule of the activities, and this at all times;
 - give up part or all of the activities against proportional reimbursement of paid participation fee.

Withdrawal / Reimbursement

- Any withdrawal must be reported in writing to the Equal Opportunities Office.
- Withdrawals can be addressed without charge until 10 days before the beginning of the week of holiday activities. Participation fees already paid are then fully reimbursed. After this time all paid participation fees are fully retained.
- A cancellation for medical reasons is possible at any time, upon presentation of a medical certificate concerning the registered child and covering the period of activity. Participation fees are the reimbursed, minus CHF 40 that are retained to cover administrative costs.

Security / Measures

- Children have the obligation to follow the instructions given by the monitors, and follow the usual safety and general safety rules.
- The Equal Opportunities Office reserves itself the right to exclude children because of inappropriate behavior. In this case, the participation fees will not be reimbursed. Parents agree to pick up their child immediately upon the call from the Equal Opportunities Office or from the concerned monitor.

Insurance / Responsibility

- Each parent is obliged to insure his own child against the risk of damage and injury. By their signature, parents accept that their child is insured accordingly.
- The Equal Opportunities Office disclaims any responsibility for damage, theft or loss of items during the organised week of activities.

The place of jurisdiction is Lausanne