4. The laws and customs that apply to the EPFL do not permit any of its income or assets to be given to, distributed to, or applied for the benefit of, a private person or non-charitable organization other than (a) as part of the EPFL's scientific, or educational activities, or (b) as payment of reasonable compensation for services provided to the EPFL, or (c) as payment for the fair market value of property the EPFL has purchased.
5. The annual financial statements of the EPFL are audited regularly by the Swiss Federal Audit Office (SFAO) according to the generally accepted professional standard in this field.
6. The EPFL has no shareholders or members who have a proprietary interest or ownership claim in the income or assets of the EPFL.

9. The EPFL is a school, meaning an educational organization for which all of the following statements are true: it normally maintains a regular faculty and curriculum; it normally has a regularly enrolled body of students in attendance at the place where its educational activities are regularly carried on; it has adopted, and operates according to, a culture of mutual respect and non-discriminatory policy as to students and employees; and it receives substantial funding from the government.
10. The laws and customs that apply to the EPFL do not contemplate dissolution because it is not an option under the mandate given to the EPFL by the Swiss federal government.
