The Direction of the Ecole polytechnique fédérale de Lausanne, based on the Ordonnance du Conseil des EPF concernant le remboursement des frais dans le domaine des EPF\(^1\) of 11\(^{th}\) April 2002, hereby adopts the following:

General provisions

Article 1 Scope of application

1. In the present Directive, expenses are defined as being any expenditure incurred by an employee in the interests of EPFL. The following professional expenses are notably reimbursed to employees:
   - Travel expenses (Articles 9, 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14 below)
   - Meal expenses (Article 17 below)
   - Accommodation expenses (Articles 15 and 16 below)
   - Other expenses and entertainment expenses (Articles 18, 19, 20 and 21 below)

2. The present regulations for expenses are applicable to all employees who exercise a professional activity at EPFL (hereinafter: ‘employees’), regardless of the source of funding.

3. The present directive is also applicable for the reimbursement of travel expenses for lecturers, experts and academic visitors. External EPFL employees (consultants) are subject to the travel regulations laid out in the present directive within the framework of their EPFL mandate.

4. The method of reimbursement for expenses incurred by guests of the Presidency\(^2\) remains reserved.

Article 2 General principles

1. The respect of general principles forms part of our duty to set a good example and to remain transparent in our use of public funds. This includes all Unit funds, regardless of the source of financing.

5. The provisions of the present directive comply with the following general principles:
   - Responsible use of resources;
   - Avoidance of conflict of interest between professional and private activities;
   - Respect for the interests and specificities of the institute;
   - Absence of personal gain or loss for the employee (“no gain, no loss”).

2. In accordance with EPFL’s commitments to sustainable development, the Direction encourages the use of public transport, limitations in the use of cars, and the use of modern communication tools such as videoconferencing.

3. EPFL has a Duty of Care towards those undertaking a journey\(^3\). Respect of the procedures in place concerning the declaration of travel and purchase of air travel tickets via the EPFL Travel Agency is the way that ensures the possibility of providing advice, supervision and assistance for the person undertaking travel, where necessary.

Article 3 General procedures\(^4\), roles and responsibilities

1. All professional travel requires the creation and validation of a travel request, followed by the creation and validation of an expense claim.

2. All expenses outside of travel are taken into account directly via an expense claim.

3. The beneficiary, respectively the person undertaking travel:
   - Gives notice of his/her travel plans;
   - Prepares the travel request independently or in collaboration with the travel organiser;
   - Completes the predicted spending and allocated funds sections;
   - Validates his/her travel request before purchasing any services relating to the trip;

\(^1\) RS 172.220.113.43
\(^2\) LEX 1.1.1, Annex 1
\(^3\) RS 220 Swiss Civil Code (Code des Obligations), Art. 328
\(^4\) See detailed presentation of procedures in Annex 1

Version 1
- Registers his/her trip via the appropriate tools;
- Presents all of his/her expenses in the expense claim, ensuring that no private expenses are included, that no double payment is made and that expenses are presented in compliance with the present directive. Assigns the expenses (invoices) to the relevant claim;
- Validates his/her expense claim;
- Corrects refused claims.

4. The travel organiser:
- Prepares the travel request in collaboration with the beneficiary;
- Completes the predicted spending and allocated funds sections;
- Collates all of the expenses incurred by a trip in an expense claim;
- Triggers the validation procedure for the expense claim.

5. The travel request approver:
- Ensures that travel is justified and that the indicated expenses are appropriate;
- Ensures the availability of necessary funding for the travel plans;
- Verifies the eligibility of expenses according to the source of funding.

6. The expense claim approver:
- Reviews and approves the expense claim;
- Ensures compliance regarding the claim and supporting documents.

Article 4 Non-reimbursed expenses

1. Expenses may only be eligible for reimbursement if they are directly related to professional activity or professional travel. The following expenses are not eligible (non-exhaustive list):
   - All private expenses, including any increase in professional travel costs in combination with private travel, personal luggage or equipment necessary for the trip, expenses relating to ancillary activities;
   - Travel costs between the place of residence and the contractual workplace;
   - Costs for the issuance of identity cards, passports or residence permits;
   - Fines (private vehicle, rental or 'Mobility' vehicle);
   - Ancillary expenses which appear on the hotel invoice, such as bar, minibar, films, etc.;
   - Dry cleaning expenses during the course of travel (for trips of fewer than 3 days);
   - Moving expenses, provided that these have not been contractually agreed upon at the time of organization;
   - Material which should be entered on an inventory and mobile telephone devices;
   - Annual fees for private credit cards;
   - Fuel expenses in place of the kilometers travelled in a private vehicle;
   - The equivalent of a train ticket for a journey completed in a private vehicle;
   - Fees for additional weight for luggage or for additional articles of luggage brought for private purposes;
   - Fees resulting from negligence or misconduct;
   - Any expenses, which are not expressly authorized during sabbatical leave.

2. Transport expenses other than for public transport, shared vehicles or rental vehicles for travel between EPFL and the antenna (Geneva, Sion, Fribourg and Neuchâtel) are not eligible for reimbursement. Neither are expenses for meals incurred at another EPFL site reimbursed.

Article 5 Purchasing channels

1. The following channels are recommended and are to be accorded priority:
Flight ticket: EPFL Travel Agency, reservation tool: ‘SESAME-booking’
Train ticket (Switzerland): CFF/SBB Ticket Shop Business
Train ticket (outside of Switzerland): preferably CFF/SBB Ticket Shop Business, other possibilities may be found at https://voyages.epfl.ch/

2. The authorized purchasing channels / payment methods for the purchase of travel services are detailed in Annex 3 and 4.

Article 6 Individual EPFL credit card
1. EPFL provides Heads of Unit with an individual EPFL credit card.
2. The Heads of Unit may request that frequent travelers from their Unit be attributed an individual EPFL credit card.
3. The indicative amounts for meal expenses and the maximum amounts for accommodation listed in Annex 2 must be taken into account as a benchmark for individual EPFL credit card holders in the context of their professional expenses. For all other spending, the regulations laid out in the present directive apply in full to all individual EPFL credit card holders.
4. Transactions which feature on the monthly statement for the credit card are integrated in full in the expense tool at expense claim level.

Article 7 Advance payments
1. Advance payments may be requested only by persons undertaking travel who do not possess an individual EPFL credit card.
2. The sum of an advance payment may amount to a minimum of CHF 200 and a maximum of 80% of the fees to be covered by the person undertaking travel, on the basis of a validated travel request.
3. Advance payments are transferred to the beneficiary by bank transfer to the account in which salary is received.

Article 8 Justification of expenses
1. Expenses are actual and documented
2. All proof of payment, to be scanned in the expense claim tool, must be an original document and be retained until the closure of the expense claim.
3. Expenses below CHF 10.00 may exceptionally be reimbursed without the submission of a receipt.
4. Spending made with an individual EPFL credit card of CHF 100.00 or over shall be recorded (receipt, hotel invoice, etc.). For spending of under CHF 100.00, additional information shall be provided if necessary (names and number of meal participants, etc.). Scanned copies of proof of payment shall be retained until the closure of the expense claim.

Professional travel expenses

Article 9 Rail travel, taxi and other public transport
1. Employees of function level 6 or below shall travel in 2nd class. Employees of function level 7 or above may choose to travel in 1st class.
2. The Head of Unit may exceptionally extend this latter authorization to employees of other function levels. Justification shall be included in writing on the expense claim (accompaniment, professional requirements).

11 Online reservations tool. See: voyages.epfl.ch
12 Access to CFF/SBB Ticket Shop Business available via EPFL login
13 An employee is considered to be a frequent traveler when he/she completes at least 5 trips per year (see Article 20). For further information, see the Directive on the use of credit cards at EPFL, LEX 5.4.1
14 See also the Directive on the use of credit cards at EPFL, LEX 5.4.1
3. The use of taxis is to be limited to a strict minimum. Expenses for taxis shall be justified namely by indicating the place of departure and place of arrival as well as the reason for which public transports were not used. Taxi travel carried out within a 10 km radius to or from an EPFL campus is not reimbursed, unless an exception has been duly justified in the expense claim.

Article 10  CFF/SBB travel cards and regional travel cards

1. CFF/SBB travel cards:
   - All employees with an activity rate of at least 50% for a duration of at least 12 months are entitled to:
   - a free CFF/SBB Half-Fare travel card,
   - a 15% reduction on the price of a CFF/SBB GA travel card;
   - a 5% reduction on the price of a CFF/SBB Junior GA travel card.
   - These travel cards are intended for use during professional travel by rail and may also be used for private travel.
   - Half-Fare travel cards remain the property of EPFL and shall be returned when the employee in question ceases activity with EPFL.

2. The discounts available for the GA travel card cover journeys by rail at a fixed rate:
   - 1 – 29 professional journeys per year: included in the discount of 15%
   - 30 – 59 professional journeys per year: 40% discount, leaving 60% to be paid by the employee.
   - 60 – 89 professional journeys per year: 60% discount, leaving 40% to be paid by the employee.
   - 90 professional journeys per year or more: full reimbursement.

3. Employees benefitting from the above reductions may not claim reimbursement for the journeys undertaken.

4. The Head of Unit may authorize, for economic reasons, the reimbursement of a CFF/SBB Half-Fare travel card for a person who is not included in the circle of beneficiaries (for example, a host or student).

5. Special cases are handled between the beneficiary and the HR department.

6. Regional travel cards: all employees have the right to a reduction of 15% on the purchase of a regional monthly or annual travel card, provided that this includes the fare network of the workplace. These dispositions are applicable if an agreement is in place between regional transportation entities and the EPFL location at stake.

Article 11  Air travel

6. Alternative travel by rail for nearby destinations is to be given priority when selecting a means of transport. EPFL recommends that employees travel by train if the destination can be reached in fewer than 5 hours. Journeys by air are to be limited to essential flights only.

7. The most advantageous offer is to be selected based on the following criteria:
   - most direct travel route;
   - best price;
   - Travel dates. If the most advantageous pricing offer implies additional accommodation expenses, it may be selected, provided that the additional cost of accommodation does not exceed the saving realized in selecting this option.

7. Use of ‘Economy’ class is mandatory for flights within Europe. For intercontinental flights, the ‘Economy’ class is recommended; “Premium Economy class” and ‘Business class’ options are allowed, subject to authorization by the Head of Unit. First class is not authorized.

15 The management of CFF/SBB travel cards falls under the responsibility of the VPRHO. For further information, see: https://rh.epfl.ch/page-41176.html
16 https://developpement-durable.epfl.ch/subventions-regio
8. Memberships to a loyalty programmes do not constitute a valid criteria for selecting a travel option. EPFL recommends that airline miles and other advantages gained from professional travel should be used for professional travel; it does not forbid their use for private travel.

9. Any private journeys (round trip or detour added to the original route) are to be declared and reimbursed to EPFL.

Article 12  Shared and rental vehicles
1. For travel within Switzerland and outgoing travel from Switzerland, the official EPFL service providers shall be exclusively chosen.
10. When abroad, alternative service providers may be chosen provided that their conditions are more advantageous. Supplementary insurance is recommended when renting vehicles abroad. Supplementary insurance is covered by the Unit.
11. Vehicle hire shall be considered as private spending when the distance between accommodation and the event location (conference, seminar, etc.) is less than 5 km and where public transport options and/or taxis are available.
12. The use of a shared or rental vehicle is recommended in the following cases:
   - If oversized, heavy or fragile equipment is being transported;
   - If the time gained exceeds at least 50% of the journey time using public transport.
13. Categories of vehicles:
   - Only the ‘Compact’ category or lower are authorized. Heads of Unit may authorize a higher category if several individuals are to participate in the journey or if the journey is exceptionally long. This authorization shall be duly motivated. The hiring of luxury cars is prohibited;
   - The ‘Emotion’ and ‘Cabrio’ categories of Mobility cars are not authorized.

Article 13  Private vehicles
1. If an employee is obliged to use a private vehicle, he/she shall be entitled to a kilometric allowance of CHF 0.60 per km (CHF 0.20 per km for motorbikes), to a maximum of 150 km per return journey in accordance with EPFL commitments to sustainable development.
14. The price per km incorporates fuel prices, maintenance, insurance and depreciation. Any employee using his/her private vehicle is thus considered fully responsible for all risks relating to this usage. EPFL recommends that employees prioritise the use of a rental vehicle over their own vehicle in order to benefit from the insurance coverage for rental vehicles (maximum cover for risks).
15. Travel completed within a 10 km radius of EPFL is not reimbursed; travel to, from and between Antennas are not reimbursed.
16. For persons with reduced mobility, a disability sticker, or medical certificate, the use of a private vehicle is authorized and is subject to annual or temporary approval by the Head of Unit.

Article 14  Parking
1. It is recommended that the least expensive carparks be used (in particular long-stay carparks at airports).
2. Parking fees incurred where a member of staff has left his/her vehicle parked at the point of departure for his/her journey are reimbursed to a maximum duration of 7 days.

Article 15  Hotel accommodation or equivalent
1. The choice of hotels shall be made in accordance with the spending allowance per country as indicated in Annex 2. If the purpose of travel so requires, a hotel from a higher price category may be selected. This choice must be duly justified.

17 For further information, see: http://voyages.epfl.ch
18 For further information, see: http://voyages.epfl.ch
17. Actual hotel costs shall be reimbursed upon presentation of the invoice, minus any personal spending.

18. The invoice must carry the name of the person undertaking travel.

19. The cost of the night prior to and the night following the event may be considered as a professional expense. Any additional nights of accommodation, before or after, are considered private expenses.

20. Additional expenses relating to companions are considered as private spending and are to be subtracted.

Article 16 Apartment accommodation or accommodation in private dwellings

1. Accommodation in private dwellings during professional travel shall give rise to the reimbursement of a gift to the sum of CHF 80.00 maximum for the complete duration of the stay. Expenses must be justified.

2. The renting of an apartment may be possible if financial justification can be proven.

3. All meals consumed during the day, in the apartment and/or on campus are covered by maintenance and living expenses, and shall be reimbursed according to actual spending in accordance with the meal allowances (excluding breakfast) listed in Annex 2.

4. The private portion of apartment accommodation shall be subtracted.

Article 17 Meal expenses

1. EPFL recommends that travelers consider the reference amounts for meal expenses listed in Annex 2.

2. The following expenses are considered meal expenses:

   - Meals consumed during periods of professional travel. These shall be reimbursed based on actual spending.
   - Professional meal costs incurred for meals amongst EPFL colleagues, within reason regarding frequency and cost (CHF 28 per person in Switzerland). In all cases, the most senior employee present at the meal must settle the invoice. The following information shall be recorded:
     - Objective and date of the meal or event
     - List of associated individuals

21. It is considered that there are three daily meals. Breakfast is reimbursed for departures from the place of residence before 7am and an evening meal is reimbursed for arrivals at the place of residence after 7.30pm.

22. No reimbursement may be requested if the person undertaking travel has not incurred any spending (for example, conference with meal included, third party invitation, meal provided during air travel, etc.).

23. Meal expenses settled by invoice are subject to the same validation procedure as expense claims and must bear the same information.

24. In case of loss of receipt or in case a receipt is not provided, an exceptional allowance can be granted

Article 18 Visas, vaccinations and gratuities

1. The person travelling is responsible for ensuring that his/her passport is valid for the professional journey. He/She is also responsible for obtaining a visa. A visa agency may assist with procedures relating to this latter responsibility. Visa expenses incurred for professional travel shall be reimbursed.
25. The person travelling is responsible for ensuring that he/she has received the vaccinations required for the professional journey. Vaccination expenses incurred for professional travel shall be reimbursed.

26. Gratuities are only reimbursed when a service charge is not included in the price of the meal. Only gratuities described as being ‘mandatory’ or ‘strongly recommended’ shall be reimbursed, to a maximum of 5 to 10% of the cost of the meal except for the USA where the max. rate is 20%.

Entertainment expenses

Article 19 Entertainment expenses

1. The following expenses shall be considered as entertainment expenses and should be engaged with restraint:
   - Expenses incurred within the context of continuing relations between EPFL and external third parties (primarily meal expenses);
   - Expenses incurred within the context of external meetings, workshops or excursions;
   - End of year meals between colleagues.

2. Partners or spouses of EPFL employees may be associated if external guests are also accompanied by their partners or spouses.

3. Actual spending shall be reimbursed provided that the following mandatory information is recorded:
   - Aim of the invitation, name of the company/organization, names of the external and internal persons present;
   - Date and location of the event.

4. The maximum amount reimbursed per person is CHF 100.00 within the context of expenses incurred with third parties and end of year meals. Any excess shall be justified in writing when completing the expense claim.

5. Expenses incurred within the context of external meetings, workshops or excursions are not capped but must be exercised with restraint.

6. Invoiced entertainment expenses are subject to the same validation procedure as the expense claim and must include the same information.

Procedures for travel requests and expense claims

Article 20 Travel request: definition, planning and budget

1. A travel request is necessary if:
   - The person undertaking travel is to travel by air;
   - The trip requires hotel accommodation for one or more nights.

2. Before making any purchase relating to the intended professional travel, the travel request must be completed and validated.

3. The travel request must present an estimation of the costs for the following categories of expenses (if applicable):
   - Air travel
   - Train travel
   - Car rental
   - Accommodation
   - Inscription fees (conferences, seminars, etc.)
   - Meals

Article 21 Approval of the travel request

1. Travel requests may be validated by all persons with signature rights over the full cost center\(^{22}\).

\(^{22}\) Signature rights for > CHF 0.00
2. The Head of Unit is authorized to approve his/her own travel request subject to the following paragraph.
3. The hierarchical superior may request that he/she be the only person authorized to approve travel requests for the Units under his/her responsibility.

Article 22  Handling of expense claims
1. Expenses relating to professional travel shall be assigned to the travel plan concerned without undue delay.
2. Expenses not related to professional travel shall be declared as soon as possible. The claim shall be validated when it exceeds CHF 200.00, and at the end of each year at the latest, in accordance with instructions regarding the closure of annual accounts.

Article 23  Attribution of purchases made with a professional credit card (corporate or individual), CFF/SBB Ticket Shop Business, Travel Agency and invoices
1. Purchases made via the Travel Agency will automatically be assigned to the relevant expense claim.
2. Spending with an individual EPFL credit card must be assigned to an expense claim.
3. Purchases made via CFF/SBB Ticket Shop Business for travel must be assigned to an expense claim at the moment of purchase.
4. Purchases for travel made with a corporate credit card must be assigned to an expense claim at the moment of allocation.
5. The portion of private spending must be declared and recorded.
6. All of these expenses will be debited to the fund specified when the expense claim is counted.
7. Invoices relating to travel shall be assigned to an expense claim.

Article 24  Approval of expense claims
1. Expense claims shall be validated in accordance with the principles outlined in Art. 3.
2. Validation shall take place in three stages, in accordance with Art. 48 of the Financial Regulations:
   1. firstly by the beneficiary, secondly by the hierarchical superior with rights over the cost centre (or his/her representative), and finally by the Accounting department (randomised verification).
3. Where the beneficiary is a School Dean or College Director, the approver is the Vice-President for Finances.
4. Where the beneficiary is a Vice President or the President, the approver is the General Counsel.
5. In the case of refusal from the approver, the expense claim is returned to the beneficiary for correction.

Controls and penalties
Article 25  Controls and competencies
1. The VPFI ensures that the present regulations are properly applied and completes regular reporting on spending per Unit and per spending category.
2. A posteriori controls will be undertaken by the VPFI.
3. The ETH Board internal audit runs a subsidiary control.

23 In this case the person completing the travel request shall select this person from the list of ‘approvers’ shown in the dropdown menu of the tool.
24 If possible, within the current month.
25 See the Directive on the use of credit cards at EPFL, LEX 5.4.1
26 See Article 48, Signatory rights for reimbursement of professional expenses
Article 26 Penalties

1. The non-respect of purchasing channels (Annex 4) shall lead to the non-reimbursement and / or cancellation of the individual EPFL credit card.
2. Deviations from the principles laid down above shall be handled with the beneficiary.
3. Proven cases of fraud will be reported and sanctioned in accordance with the regulations in force.

Final provisions

Article 27 Entry into force

1. The EPFL Direction approved this directive on 5th November 2018 for an effective application as of 23rd September 2019.
2. The present directive cancels and replaces any other instructions relating to professional travel and business expenses at EPFL.

On behalf of the EPFL Direction:

President: Director of Legal Affairs:

Martin Vetterli Françoise Chardonnens
