By train

The train from Zürich takes approximately 2h 30 to go to Lausanne. From Geneva you can take a train to Lausanne, then the Lausanne metro (Gare CFF > Gare du Flon > line M1 direction Renens). By public transportation (metro, M1)

Line M1 of the TL (Transports lausannois) takes you from the centre of Lausanne (Flon) or from Renens station to the EPFL.

Bus lines TL (Public Transports of Lausanne area) and MBC (Transport Region Morges) run in western Lausanne:

By car, on the motorway, follow direction "Lausanne-Sud", exit "EPFL".

Car parks: parking places (paying) for visitors are available under l'Esplanade, and along the Avenue Piccard. Car parks indicated by the green "P" symbol are reserved for holders of a special card. As it is not always easy to find a place, we suggest you to come by train or metro.
