

Swissquote Conference 2017 on FinTech

Jeffrey R. Bohn, Swiss Re Institute

Title: Technology and Insurance: Themes and Challenges

Abstract: As technology continues to insinuate itself into all facets of financial services, the inevitable disruption in the insurance industry continues a slow-motion parade of promise, possibilities, prematurity, and pared-down expectations. This said, InsurTech will change the industry in material ways—not always in line with predictions. This presentation presents the themes and challenges related to how technology is impacting insurance.
