

Form to be pre-filled by teaching teams. The Living Archives is an open platform that aims to democratize access to knowledge and encourage the sharing of architectural knowledge. It brings together research, projects, experiments and activities carried out at EPFL Architecture. This initiative is part of EPFL's Open Science/Open Access strategy.

Living Archives Pre-filled Form

This form, pre-filled by your teaching team, will guide you through the process of entering your project in the Living Archives. Simply check the appropriate options (title type, category) and fill in the requested information (description, files to be uploaded).
